

Are you planning to invest for a heat treatment kilns / thermal modification kiln? Are bankers requesting an update for your business plan? Need to apply building and environmental licence? Need information for applying subsidies? Or do you just need to prepare profit and cost calculation, choice which kind of boiler/heating you need and design the lay-out of the new factory? We have experience of over 15 years for designing wood processing and heat treatment plants wood industry, preparing business plans and work as advisor for preparing profit and cost as well as financial calculations.

How do you plan to generate heat? Natural gas, fuel oil, wood fired boiler, or could it be better to

What is the correct size of the load? How does the kilnd size effect for the payback time?

Carefully designed investments are based on careful planning and guarantee profitable long-term business.